It was may

|F   Bb | F   Bb C |

It was a tuesday morning in May and as I awoke

|F   Gm| Gm GmC|

I saw the sun against your dear face

|Bb C | Am Dm|

It was the years lovely smile

|Bb F | Bb C |

The breeze was fresh and throughout the garden linger the sense of roses

|F Bb | F Bb C |

It was may and I cannot forget that we sang together

|F Gm | Gm Gm Am|

The more time passes the more I remember

|Bb C |Am Dm|

The air was fresh and the song so sweet

|Bb C| F |

Oh it was may, it was may

|Bb C |Am Dm|

You sang the love of my heart, the love of my heart

|Gm   C | F |

You are going far away, you are leaving me

|Bb C |Am Dm|

And I was count the hours when were you return?

|Bb Am| Bb C|

Without doubt I say, I will return when the roses bloom again

|Bb C| Am Dm|

And I sang the love of my heart, the love of my heart

|Gm C | F |

You are going far away, you are leaving me

|Bb C |Am Dm|

And I will count the hours when were you return

|Gm Am| Bb C|

And you say, I will return when I hear your voice again

Gm Am Bb C F

I will return as promise when the roses bloom again
